

Our Conscience – Tikkun Olam

We are a community of conscience and sacred action guided by and grounded in the teachings of our tradition. We work to grow individually and as a community in order to repair breaches in our connections—to each other, to our fellow metropolitan New Orleanians, to our country, to all of humankind, and to our planet. Together we identify opportunities for service and action, mobilizing our strengths to address suffering and injustice.